From the Principal:

"There is nothing noble in being superior to your fellow man; true nobility is being superior to your former self."

— Ernest Hemingway

Captain Charlie Plumb flew 74 consecutive successful combat missions. However, on his 75th mission his F4 Phantom fighter plane was shot down by a surface-to-air missile. Charlie was forced to eject. The only thing between him and imminent death was his parachute that he prayed would open...

Then finally he felt the opening shock of the parachute. During the 90 seconds of descent he was being shot at. Charlie made it down to the ground alive but was then captured and spent 2103 brutal days as a prisoner of war in a communist Vietnamese prison camp.

Many years later after being repatriated Charlie, by chance, came into contact with a man at a restaurant. The "stranger" approached Charlie and asked "You're Captain Plumb." Charlie looked up at him and said, "Yes, I am Captain Plumb."

The man said, "You're that man. You flew jet fighters in Vietnam. You're a fighter pilot, part of that 'Top Gun' outfit. You launched from the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk, you parachuted into enemy territory and you spent six years as a prisoner of war."

Somewhat dumbfounded Charlie looked up at the man and asked, "How in the world did you know all that?" The man chuckled, smiled and said, "Because I packed your parachute." Charlie was speechless. The man grabbed Charlie's hand and pumped his arm and said, "I guess it worked" and walked off.

Charlie laid awake that night thinking about all the times he had walked through the long narrow room, below sea level on the aircraft carrier, with the tables where the men packed the parachutes. How many times he must have walked past this man without even saying "hi," "good morning" or "good job" or "I appreciate what you do." "How many times did I pass the man whose job would eventually save my life... because I was a TopGun racing around the sky at twice the speed of sound. Because I was a fighter pilot and he was just a sailor."

How many times in life do we pass the people who help us out the most? The people who come out of the far corners of your life just when you need them the most and pack your parachutes for you? The people who go the extra mile, the people who don't look for the kudos or the accolades or the achievement medal—the people who are just out there packing parachutes? Sometimes in the daily challenges that life gives us, we miss what is really important. We may fail to say hello, please or thank you, congratulate someone on something wonderful that has happened to them, give them a compliment or just do something for no reason. As you go through this week, this month, the remainder of this school year, recognize those people who pack your parachutes.

Plain Clothes Day Friday 8th November:

For a gold coin donation our students can wear plain clothes this coming Friday. As mentioned in last week's newsletter the funds raised will go directly to purchasing educational supplies for schools in Vanuatu. Each child has only 1 lead pencil, 1 exercise book and the teacher uses a black board and chalk. Education in Vanuatu is very expensive and many families sacrifice what little luxury they may have to afford to pay school fees for their children. These supplies will give the children a better chance at education and a chance for the future. Matt and Tiff Shea are returning later in November and will personally deliver these items to the school.

Thank you for your support.

P & F Trivia Night:

Unfortunately the P & F Trivia night scheduled for this Friday night has been cancelled due to the numbers being too low to go ahead with this event.

N.I.J.S.S.A. Carnival:

Congratulations to all of our students for their outstanding behaviour, effort and success at the Northern Independent Junior Schools Sports Association Athletics Carnival. In particular our Grade 3 girls and boys blitzed all other competition in the sprint events. Our students did an incredible job and should be proud of their efforts and Sacred Heart's School overall 2nd placing. It was a tight battle with Scotch coming 1st, 2nd or 3rd in 97 events while we came 1st, 2nd or 3rd in 92 events.

P-2 Athletics Carnival:

Thanks to everyone who helped organise, participate and spectate as part of our P-2 Athletics Carnival. We were treated with fantastic weather, a well organised, structured and positive carnival. Congratulations to Rice House for winning the carnival. Congratulations and thanks must go to Mr. John Anderson for his organisation of the carnival.

Changes to Assembly and Wearing Sports Uniform:

1. Assembly will be at 2:20 p.m. each Friday until the end of the year.
2. P - 6 students can wear their Sports Uniform each and every Friday

P-2 Swimming Friday 8th November:

The 6 week swimming program for our P-2 students begins this Friday. A letter was sent home to parents with more detailed information. If you have not received this letter please speak with your child's class teacher.

2014 Classes:

Any parent requests need to be in writing to the Principal by this Friday 8th November. As mentioned in previous newsletters, parents should not assume that all teachers will remain on the grades they are in this year. Starting next week teachers are beginning to allocate students to classes and once these are finalised we are unable to make any changes.

"I want to be extremely clear to all parents. Even if parents have made a request to a class teacher, or have been given some assurance that the request can be made there is no guarantee that this can happen. It is important that we be just and fair in the process of requests based on merit not just on parents who voice a preference.

The educational needs of individual students in alignment with the needs of all students in that grade (academically, socially and behaviourally) must and will be placed ahead of preferences like requesting a specific teacher."

Ipads 2014: Parent Session:

As previously announced we will be continuing with the 1:1 iPad program in 2014. Grade 3 and 4 students will have access to their own iPad for use at school and at home.

We will be having parent sessions to answer any questions and outline the iPad program for 2014.

- ✓ Monday 18th November 7pm Current Grade 2 parents
- ✓ Monday 25th November 7pm Current Grade 3 parents.

We encourage existing Grade 2 and Grade 3 parents to email Karen Cettolin (Karen.cettolin@catholic.tas.edu.au) with any questions that you would like answered or information shared with you ahead of the meeting so we can have time to provide what is needed. Our teachers and students have gained some learning on how best to utilise this technology to enhance and engage their learning and teaching.

Good News !

Nano Nagle is now known as Venerable Nano

But who is Nano Nagle and what does this have to do with our school?

As you are aware our school is celebrating 140 years since first being established back in 1873. It began with the work of the Presentation Sisters. The Presentation Sisters were founded by Nano Nagle back in 1775. This week Pope Francis has bestowed Nano Nagle as Venerable - meaning she is further on her way to becoming a saint! She had already been declared a Servant of God in 1994, a move that placed her on the first of four steps to canonisation.

Nano Nagle was born in 1718 to wealthy parents in Balgriffin, Cork, and was educated in Paris. Aged 36, distressed by the plight of the poor, she founded her first school in a two-room cabin in Cove Lane in Co Cork city.

Two decades later, in 1775, she founded the Presentation Sisters with a mission to bring the gospel message to people on the margins of society. The congregation founded hundreds of schools around the world, including our own.

Its leadership team is based in Monastrevin, Co Kildare, from where it oversees the work of 1,200 sisters worldwide - 650 of them in Ireland. In a statement the congregation's leaders expressed their delight with the pope's decision. Head of the Leadership Team Sister Mary Deane said that by proclaiming Nano Nagle "Venerable", the Universal Catholic Church had recognised her as a woman of faith, hope, and heroic virtue whose vision and work transformed the lives of very many.

She added that for the Order's Sisters, associates, and for the friends of Nano throughout the world, the Venerable Nano had been, and continues to be, a source of inspiration and challenge as they respond to the needs of today in fidelity to the gospel and in her spirit.

R E NEWS

And so in the spirit of Nano Nagle we continue this mission to bring Good News to all. During our Old Fashioned Day we will remember the Presentation Sisters, the Christian Brothers (who established St Patrick's College on site in 1918) and all the work of the Sisters, Brothers and lay teachers, along with the families, who have shaped our school to this present time. As a school we will be looking more closely at our founders and our history in the years to follow.

For now, we invite you to celebrate with us:

Our Celebratory Liturgy for the life of Nano Nagle on the Feast day of the Presentation of Mary November 21st at 2.30pm in our Presentation Hall.

All students need to be commended for their excellent behaviour and encouragement of others. Congratulations to the Rice House that finished the day with the most points.
