From the Principal:

"Feedback"

"Teachers encourage minds to think, hands to create and hearts to love." (Anonymous)

"We all need people who give us feedback. That's how we improve." (Bill Gates)

I wonder how many times a day we give or receive feedback? The more I pondered this question the more I realised that there were far too many times to count them.

Each morning most have the pleasure of greeting family members. In most of these greetings feedback will be exchanged, a simple smile, a good morning, this type of acknowledgement always says two things, it is a pleasant way to acknowledge someone else and it reflects a person who thinks kindly of others. This type of feedback is not complex and I'm sure all of us do it without even thinking about it. We challenge the children of Sacred Heart to do the same. It's good manners, it's respectful and it always goes towards making others feel good.

As teachers at Sacred Heart in 2019 we have all been working on giving and receiving feedback on our teaching. As teachers this makes us vulnerable. It requires teachers to establish goals of what they wish to achieve, colleague teachers will then spend time watching one another and responding to the established goals. Importantly for the process to work trust is critical.

Our teachers want to make progress on being better teachers' as this will in turn assist children to make progress in their learning. Typically teachers with a "growth mindset" ask themselves these sorts of questions and reflect on these statements...

- What am I missing?
- Am I on the right track?
- I'll use some of the strategies we've learned.
- This may take some time and effort
- I can always improve so I'll keep trying.
- Mistakes help me learn better.
- Am I asking the right questions?
- Have I thought of trying something different?
- Is it really my best?

We have also challenged children to reflect on the way they too can make improvements. Each and every child is asked to consider what ways can they be better learners? What aspects of their behaviour need addressing? With only six weeks to go before the 2019 school year is complete we will continue to challenge children to reflect on these, just as our teachers are still considering how they can use the feedback they receive.

How we give and receive feedback is critical. I've yet to meet anyone who enjoys being "told off". When we treat one another with respect, we are more likely to give and receive feedback with a "listening ear". Part of becoming better people/teachers/students will always be dependent on hearing things that perhaps we don't enjoy hearing. None of us are perfect, but by listening to others sharing respectful thoughts on what is lacking in our performance we can make steps to growing closer to being better.

Consider this week how you give feedback to our teachers, to your children and to other members of our community. Is it respectful, is it accurate and is it helpful. Equally how do you take feedback when it is provided, do you see it as an opportunity for growth?

"The biggest communication problem is that we do not listen to understand, we listen to reply." (Anonymous)

Classing Arrangements 2020

Parents will be advised via the newsletter next Thursday 14th November of the classroom teachers for 2020. There will be some information included about parents providing detail to me regarding the placement of their child. It is vital that parents honour the process if they wish for the information to be considered. One important aspect is the need to email ALL information directly to me on brent.wilson@catholic.tas.edu.au. Please check this information in next week's newsletter. Thanks in anticipation

NIJSSA

Congratulations to our NIJSSA Athletics team for an outstanding performance last week. The children excelled both on and off the track. Special thanks to the parent officials who assisted at the carnival,

Our team was placed first at the carnival. Once again it is a credit to every team member for your contribution to our overall success.

Thanks to 'super coach' John Anderson for his exceptional support and contributions. Thanks to Julian Davie and Kylie Crerar for supporting the team on the day.

Andrew Chinn Concert

On Friday Nov 8, Australian religious songwriter and singer, Andrew Chinn, will be visiting our school to share his songs with our children. Andrew's songs, such as "These Hands", "Rainbow", "An African Blessing" and "Rise Up!" are used in classrooms and liturgies around Australia, New Zealand, USA and Canada. Parents/parishioners are warmly invited to be a part of the celebration of faith and fun. There is no charge for adults. The concert will take place in the Presentation Hall, at 1:50. We look forward to seeing you there.

Student absences

If your child will be absent from school please remember to either:

- call the School office on 63311011
- email shsl@catholic.tas.edu.au
- use the Skoolbag app, fill out an eForm
- advise their teacher

If you arrive at school after 9am your child must be walked into the office via the York Street gate and report to the school office to update our records and avoid unnecessary absentee text messages.

It is a legal requirement that parents are expected to advise the school as to why their child is absent.

Signing students out during the day

- You must sign your child out if you need to pick them up from school for an appointment or for your child to leave early.
- Please pre-arrange this with your child's class teacher and the teacher will send your child to the office at the required time so you can collect them from the office and sign them out.

WORKING WITH VULNERABLE PEOPLE REGISTRATION

If parents do not have registration or registration is pending you will not be able to volunteer and attend the excursion or school event. This is something that we do not want to have to do but as legislation and system policy we need to adhere to.

How to apply for a WWVP and Number

1. Complete the online application form www.justice.tas.gov.au/working\_with\_children
2. Print the "Application Receipt" which is generated when the application has been completed in full
3. Take the "Application Receipt" to a Service Tasmania shop, pay the fee ($17.60) and have your 100 point check to confirm identity

Once your registration has been approved and you receive your WWVP card, please bring it to the school office so your name, registration number and expiry date can be recorded and verified.

Fire Alarm

A reminder that if in the instance a fire alarm is sounded whilst parents are on the school site, you are required to assemble on the oval. Students remain with teachers as part of the process is for the staff to ensure all students are accounted for. If parked on York when the fire engine arrives it is vital that you vacate the area to allow the fire engine access.
